REGULAR SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

IMPORTANT BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTIONED LAST MON-DAY EVENING.

At the meeting Monday night of the common council a communication was received from the D. A. R. asking that the council inaugurate plans for the proper celebration of the Centenary anniversary of the founding of Ypsilanti. The communication stated that Ann Arbor was looking forward to a similar celebration and it was suggested that perhaps a joint celebration might be had. It was also suggested that the various clubs and organizations of the city each write their own history and that these should be gotten together and a full and complete history of Ypsilanti could be published. The council voted that the mayor appoint a committee of two aldermen to confer with the D. A. R. and Aldermen Downing and Lathers were appointed.

State Milk Inspector Pray appeared before the council and almost precipitated a riot by his remarks. One alderman stated that there were several bootleggers in milk here, and did not observe the law relative to milk. This remark was taken exception to by another alderman, who brandished his fists in a rather threatening way. No action was taken on the matter. The present ordinance requires that a license be issued to all dealers, and it was stated there were several small dealers who have not complied with the law.

The petition of Herman Gorton to have a lunch wagon on Brower street was referred to the streets and walks committee.

A petition of J. H. Hopkins relative to a sign was tabled two weeks.

A petition of James E. Scott to move a small building was laid on the table for the reason that the building had already been moved. Permission was given Scott to use a few feet of the sidewalk to store brick in front of A. J. Nual's building.

A building permit was given to Joe Fortunato, who intends to erect a fire proof building at 17 North Washington street.

City Manager Older advised that Washtenaw avenue sewer be held in abeyance for the reason that the road would be paved soon.

City Treasurer Ethyl Van Etten gave a report of the taxes collected, stating that over $181,000 was collected and there remained about $22,000 yet to collect. She stated that she had turned over to the school fund $65,000 and also turned over $20,000 to the county. The report was accepted.

Poor Commissioner Connors reported that he had paid out $80.50 for groceries and coal for the poor in the first and fifth wards.

Justice Stadtmiller reported that he had collected the sum of $22.10 in January. The reason for this small amount was due to the fact that no arrests were made in January by the police.

Supervisor C. M. Gaudy asked that certain special assessments on the Hamilton-Pearl sewer be changed to conform with present owners. The matter was referred to the special assessors.

The ordinance committee having the hospital ordinance under consideration relative to certain changes in the personnel of the board of directors recommended that the same be left as it now reads. On a motion by Alderman Lathers the measure as recommended lost by the vote of 5 to 4.

The majority of the aldermen voting favored that it be changed to read "electors" instead of "women."

The council voted to not pay the claim of Oliver Goldsmith, who claims $150 damages on his car by reason of bad streets. It was stated that the D. U. R. had agreed to pay $65 of the amount.

Sumner Damon and M. B. Stadtmiller were appointed auditors to audit the hospital books.

Aldermen Worden, Smith and Max were instructed to look after and repair the building recently purchased for the storage of tools and city property.

SUES CITY FOR $3,000.

A suit for $3,000 has been started against the city of Ypsilanti by Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Keller, alleging that the city so built sewers that when there are hard rains the water backs up and floods their lands. The property in question is situated in the Clark addition and across it runs a small creek that empties into the Huron river.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY.

The American Legion Auxiliary held a very pleasant meeting with a large attendance Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pratt, on Saline avenue. While the members were busy with the sewing or crocheting, a delicious lunch was served.

The work of Detroit, who have been over the week-

BURGLAR CAUGHT WHILE IN ACTION

ROBBERY AND PETTY THIEV-
ING ARE GETTING TOO
NUMEROUS FOR YPSI.

The police early Wednesday morning arrested a burglar who gave his name as Morris Karmin, in the store of C. F. Horn, South Washington. Officer Henry D. Lawrence discovered an automobile in the rear of the store and called Chief of Police Connors, who after notifying Deputy Sheriff Elliott and Officer Morey made a raid on the store, where they discovered the would-be robber.

A quantity of guns and other articles were loaded in the automobile used by the burglar. He told the officers that two other men were with him and that they had boosted him through a window to gain entrance. Deputy Sheriff Elliott and Chief Connors took the burglar to Detroit in the hope that he may be connected up with a gang that robbed two Huron street places last week.

FINE TALK AT CLUB GIVEN BY PROF. WILBUR

Prof. Horace Z. Wilbur on Wednesday spoke at the Kiwanis club meeting on the proposed new city charter that may be submitted at the coming April election. He stated that the system is known as the commissioner-manager form and that it provides for the election of five commissioners from the city at large and without reference to wards or river boundaries. The five wards will be abolished, he stated, and nine election precincts substituted in their places divided by Michigan avenue, Cross street and Hamilton street. The commissioners are to serve without pay. The commissioners select the mayor from one of the five commissioners, who, if unable to agree, the mayor with the largest majority will get the office. The city commissioners are required to select a city manager, who need not be a resident of the city. Other elective officers are justice, constable and five supervisors.

PAST CHANCELOR NIGHT MONDAY, FEBRUARY 20

Monday evening, Feb. 20, will be past chancellors' night at K. of P. castle, at which time a team composed of past chancellors will confer the third rank. This is the only Knights of Pythias lodge known that has a past chancellor degree team, composed of the following past chancellors:

Pete Sullivan, Fred Schaerer, Harry Gilmore, George Millage, H. E. Van de Walker, Louis Smith, Mark Rust, Charles Seeger, James Hart, Arlie Bunce, Alex. Boutell, Joseph Warner, F. G. Hutton, C. J. Berno, Ray Burrell, Fred Gallup and W. A. Van Wegen.

The evening will be started with a 6:30 banquet, enlivened by music and short talks from the members. It is expected that several grand lodge officers will be present.

LINCOLN CLUB BANQUET SATURDAY EVENING

Saturday evening, Feb. 11, the Ypsilanti Lincoln club will hold its annual banquet at the Masonic temple. Wm. Brown, of Detroit, will be present and deliver the address. A colored quartet will furnish the singing. It is expected that upwards of 150 will sit down to the banquet. Republican county officials will be present to take part.

DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Tuesday morning Robert Knight, aged 23 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Knight, passed away at the home of his parents on the Saline road. Mr. Knight had been sick for some time. He leaves besides his parents two sisters, Mrs. Carrie Rathfon and Miss Louise; three brothers, William, of this city, and Thomas and Jack, of Ann Arbor. The funeral will be held today (Thursday) from the parents' home.

HARCOURT-BUTLER.

Thursday, Feb. 1, at the Congregational parsonage, Rev. H. C. Colburn performing the ceremony, occurred the marriage of Miss Ruth Butler and Jerry Harcourt, of this city.

WIEDMAN-BAUER.

Miss Lucy Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bauer, of Ann street, and Reuben Wiedman, of Saline, were quietly married Thursday, Feb. 2, at the Lutheran parsonage by Rev. H. Penker. Miss Elizabeth Wiedman and Mrs. Bauer, the bride and groom's mother and sister, were the witnesses. They will make their home on a farm 15 miles in the country.

HAVE YOU YOUR TICKET? IF NOT, WHY NOT?

They can be had from Mr. Marsh, at the Studebaker garage; Mr. Smith, principal at Woodruff school, or Mr. Beck, at the M. C. R. baggage room. Remember you owe it to your son or sons to be there with them, and surely every father should spend one evening in company with his son and enjoy a good meal, accompanied by good music, speaking, etc. Remember this takes place at the Prospect school next Wednesday evening, Feb. 15. Let us all join and make it a hum-dinger.

FATHER AND SON IN MEETING NEXT WEEK

Next week "father and son" week will be held in Ypsilanti. Monday evening the Catholic church will give a banquet in the St. John's clubhouse, when Justice Stadtmiller will be the speaker of the evening. Father Dillon will also give a talk. A program has been provided.

At the Prospect school Wednesday evening the Woodruff school and the Prospect school have untied and will hold their "father and son" banquet. Judge Jeffries, of Detroit, will speak, as will also Superintendent Erickson. A musical program will be given and community singing indulged in, with Olin C. Eckley as leader.

Thursday evening the men of the Methodist church will give a banquet, at which all boys over eight years will be eligible. Dr. George Gullen, of the West Grand Boulevard church, Detroit, will be present and give the principal address.

Sam Leland, director of city recreation, who is in charge of the arrangements throughout the different organizations, will attempt to reach all the boys and give them an invitation to attend some one of these meetings.

SMALL BLAZE CAUSES BIG DAMAGE TO STOCK

Friday night at about 8:30 the fire department was called to the block occupied by the Comstock Dry Goods company. The fire was found to have started on the second floor in a small room at the head of the stairs which had been used by someone to put rubbish in. The fire was confined by the department to this one room and the attic above. The damage to the building was small, but had it been later in the evening Ypsilanti might have had a real fire.

The Comstock Dry Goods company will be a heavy loser from water and smoke. Just the amount of their loss is not known and will not be until the stock is adjusted, but it is safe to say that it will run into a considerable amount. The work of adjusting this loss will start today (Thursday).

It is not known how the fire started, but is presumed to have been caused by combustion from the rubbish in this room.

ALL MILK DEALERS MUST HAVE LICENSE

At a meeting of the board of health Monday night it was decided to require all milk dealers selling milk in Ypsilanti to procure a license before Feb. 15. It is said that the board has been inspecting some of the smaller milk dealers recently and found that conditions were not as they ought to be for the better insurance of the public health.

State Milk Inspector Pray is here this week and is making a survey of all dairies furnishing milk to the city.

Ypsilanti has had an ordinance for a number of years covering the milk question which requires a license of the milk dealers. This ordinance carries a fine of $100 for dealers selling without a license.

CELEBRATES EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY SATURDAY

Mr. Charles W. Smith (Uncle Charlie), for 75 years a resident of the village of Denton and now living in Detroit with his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Truesdell, also formerly of Denton, celebrated his eightieth natal anniversary last Saturday evening, Feb. 4, in the presence of his large family of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Smith, his son and daughter-in-law, in Detroit. Mr. Smith enters upon his fifth score of years in remarkable health and vigor for one of his advanced age.

Perhaps the most pleasurable feature of the day's event was the receipt of some thirty or more postal remembrances and congratulations from his many friends in and around Denton and Ypsilanti.

Mr. Smith wishes us to express his sincere appreciation of the thoughtful kindness of all those "folks back home" who contributed to the occasion in such a fitting manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carter left today (Thursday) to visit relatives at Jackson and Concord.

KATCHA-KOO TICKETS SELLING LIKE HOT CAKES

Tickets for Katcha-Koo are selling like hot cakes on a cold day. Who has not heard of this brilliant spectacular and above all, unique production, which is to be given Feb. 13-14 at the Wuerth theatre as a benefit for the Signal Corps Auxiliary.

As the name implies, Katcha-Koo brings with it the atmosphere of the Far East. It carries the audience from the palace of the Maharajah of Hunga, an "East Indian potentate, back to New York city. There is something doing every minute. Those who have seen the rehearsals declare that such a thing as a dull spot is positively unknown. In addition to the story itself, an hilarious farce comedy, by the way, the pageantry, tableaux and scenic effects will leave nothing to be desired; and it is said by those who have had a peep behind scenes the costuming is really superb.

Mrs. W. Bergin, at the head of the local committee, is working hard and her assistants are close seconds. That the play, enlisting as it does the services of the best talent in the city, and with an expert professional director in charge, will be an artistic success goes without saying; but there are other considerations of importance. It is the intention of the committee to sell every seat in the house for each performance. This means hard work on the part of all, but from present indications their desire will be realized and the Signal Corps Auxiliary will receive a nice sum, as the proceeds from the play will be turned over to that worthy cause.

The cast for the extravaganza is practically complete. Harry Stevens will be the flirtatious and love-making Katcha-Koo (transformed by a magical garment from a Hindoo fakir to this state of amorous sublimity), while the complete cast of characters supporting him follows:

Wives of the Maharajah—Grace Riley, Ione Thayer, Marie Moore, Phoebe Sherman.

Mrs. Chatty Gaddin—Mrs. A. E. Young.

Salejah—Mrs. W. A. Bergin. Urbana—Marjorie Pavcy. Dick Horton—Dean Briggs. Harry Bradstone—Stanley Norton.

The Maharajah—Wm. Guerley. Boodypah—Ennis Durham. Prudence—Mildred Horn. A. Dolly—Reba Bishop. America—Mrs. Lillian Root.

ROTARIANS TAKE ACTION ON ROAD BUILDING

At the Rotary meeting Monday noon Representative Joseph Warner asked that a resolution be passed by the Rotarians favoring the road building program as proposed this spring. He stated that there was considerable opposition to road building this summer along the lines of curtailing expenses. In his opinion it was a good time to build, as there was plenty of labor for hire, due to the scarcity of work in other lines; also that if road building is stopped at this time the state will stand to lose the $5,000,000 federal aid money. The resolution was carried.

The entertainment program was in the hands of President McKenny, of the Normal. After introducing the two new members, Professors Wilber and Pittman, who gave a short talk on Rotary, several of the members were called on for short remarks.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY TO BE MARRIED FEB. 22

The following item appearing in the Detroit News will be of interest to Ypsilanti people. It tells of the coming marriage of one of Ypsilanti's young ladies: "Miss Helen Louise Hurdley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watters Hurdley, of Ypsilanti, has chosen Wednesday, Feb. 22, as the date of her marriage to Wm. Chapton Roney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Roney, of Grosse Pointe. The ceremony will be performed at 10 o'clock in the morning in St. John's Catholic church, Ypsilanti, after which there will be a reception for the families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurdley on Pearl street. The bride will be attended by Mr. Roney's sister, Miss Isabel Roney, as maid of honor, and by Miss Helen Kirk and Miss Genevieve Nulan, both of Ypsilanti, as bridesmaids. Edward Roney will perform the duties of best man for his brother and Richard Roney, another brother, and Clune Walsh will serve as ushers. Miss Hurdley spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Roney and her fiancé and on Wednesday of last week she was the honor guest at a shower given at the Lochmoor club by Mrs. George L. Renaud. On Saturday she was complimented with a kitchen shower for 12 guests, at which Miss Margaret Brooks, of Ypsilanti, was hostess."

SERIOUSLY ILL.

The condition of Rev. Fr. Frank Kennedy, of St. John's Catholic church, is very grave. His condition has grown worse the past few days and little hope is now entertained for his recovery.

AROUND 6000 VISIT AUTO SHOW

WAS BIG SUCCESS IN EVERY WAY—A SHOW HARD TO BEAT

Saturday evening closed one of the most successful auto shows ever held in Washtenaw county, a show that will be hard to beat in any state in towns the size of Ypsilanti and much larger. This was made possible by Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti uniting for this show. Dealers of both cities had fine displays and the mammoth Apex building was crowded with autos and auto accessories. Their untiring efforts were in no small measure responsible for the success of the affair. Many who had visited the Detroit show said that the Washtenaw show was every bit as good, considering the difference in size of the two shows.

The total attendance for the four days was around 6,000 and goes to show that people in this community are very much interested in automobiles.

PAST CAMP COMMANDERS MEET AT KALAMAZOO

The mid-winter meeting of the Past Camp Commanders' Association of Sons of Veterans will be held Feb. 24 at Kalamazoo. The Daughters of Veterans' association will meet at the same time and a joint banquet will be given in the evening at the Park American hotel by the two organizations. The following program has been prepared by M. B. Stadtmiller, who is president of the Past Camp Commanders' association in Michigan: Address of welcome, H. M. Marion, Kalamazoo; "Aims of the Past Camp Commanders' Association," E. R. Henderson, Detroit; "How to Get New Members in the Camps," Wm. W. Cook, Marshall; "Michigan Division Sons of Veterans," B. L. Snook; "Why Belong to the Sons of Veterans?" Roy Kaywood, Jackson; address, Clifford Ireland, commander-in-chief, Washington, D. C.

At the banquet to be held in the evening President Warren G. Harding is on the program for a toast, besides Hon. Washington Gardner, U. S. pension commissioner. Other speakers are Department Commander J. J. Holmes, of the G. A. R.; Adjutant General Henry Spaulding, of Lansing; G. E. Gogshall, of Grand Rapids; George W. Swift, of Detroit and Congressman Clifford Ireland. Arthur E. Lewis, of Detroit, is toastmaster.

REV. HARVEY COLBURN SPEAKER AT BANQUET

Rev. Harvey C. Colburn was the speaker at the G. A. R. banquet held by the W. R. C., Sons and Daughters of Veterans Friday evening in the G. A. R. hall. He told of the many fine qualities of Washington and McKinley and dwelt especially on Lincoln, who, he said, was such a great leader of men on account of his great heart and wonderful personality.

Miss Eugene Merceness and Miss Veva Thorne played a piano duet and responded to an encore. M. M. Stadtmiller, patriotic instructor, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Seth Merceness was chairman of the arrangements committee. Remarks were made by Rev. Krum, who recently joined the Sons of Veterans.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kane, of Ann Arbor, and the Misses Agnes and Alice Stuart, of Detroit, were guests if Mrs. G. Stuart over Sunday.

BURGLARS MAKE A CLEAN SWEEP

CLEAN OUT TWO TAILOR-
SHOPS LAST THURSDAY
NIGHT—LOSS $10,000.

Some time during Thursday night the tailor shops of Nepodal & Arnet and Frank Sima, both on Huron street, were entered by burglars and the entire stocks cleaned out. Nepodal & Arnet operate a cleaning and repair shop and their racks and cases were full of clothing, both ladies' and gents'. Not a thing was overlooked in the cleanup. Even the cash register was torn from its fastening and taken along with about $65 in cash and checks. Loss about $3,000.

Entrance was gained through a rear door, where a panel was cut out, giving the burglars access to the second door, which was pried open, giving them free access to shop. The loss at this store is practically that of the customers who had left wearing apparel there for cleaning and pressing.

At Sima's, where they made their biggest haul, they gained entrance through a side window next to the Edison building by cutting out a window glass. Mr. Sima had just received his spring and summer clothes and had a large stock on hand. Every bolt of cloth and silk lining was taken; also several suits and dresses that were in the cases. The loss here is estimated at $7,000.

It is thought that the burglars drove a truck in the alley in the rear of the stores, which they could load without detection. Evidently the job was planned beforehand. No one knows when they came and where they went. It is generally believed that they went into Detroit and that there is an organized gang working out from this city, as several tailoring shops have recently been robbed in towns within a radius of 30 miles of Detroit.

Neither of the tailor shops carried insurance, as the rate is so high on risks of this kind that it is prohibitive.

KATHERINE MACDONALD STRANGER THAN FICTION

For the first time in the career of either star, Wesley Barry has been cast in a production with Katherine MacDonald in her starring vehicle, "Stranger Than Fiction," which will be shown at the Martha Washington theatre commencing Sunday, Feb. 12.

This attraction which is offered by the Martha Washington theatre, as Miss MacDonald's latest release through Associated First National Pictures, is from an original story by Charles Richman and A. S. LeVino. For bright comedy-drama that sparkles with originality and clever situations this is declared to be one of Miss MacDonald's best pictures.

Wesley Barry takes the part of "Freckles," a role that is somewhat reminiscent of "Dinty" in that it places him in the part of a poor little orphan whom Fate has placed among crooks and in a slum atmosphere. The little fellow attracts the attention of Diane Drexel, society girl, played by Miss MacDonald, during one of her visits to the slums. She takes him into her fashionable home. Some splendid comedy situations arise as a result of the fact that 13-year-old Freckles falls in love with his beautiful protector.

Into the story is woven a clever plot that deals with the efforts of society to cope with criminals. When the police force of one of the larger cities fails to apprehend the Black Heart gang society takes a hand, with the result that the gang is finally caught; but not until the audience has enjoyed many a thrill and many a gripping situation.

NEW OFFICERS OF SIGNAL CORPS ENTERTAIN.

The new officers of the Signal Corps Auxiliary entertained the retiring officers at the home of Mrs. Wm. Bergin Thursday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated and a delicious lunch was served. The retiring officers were presented with basket flower holders. Friday evening the auxiliary will hold their regular meeting at the armory.

SHELDON

The Ladies' Aid society will give their free entertainment and will also have candy booths, lunch counters and fish ponds, etc., Friday evening, Feb. 17. All are welcome. This was postponed from Jan. 27. Don't forget the new date.

Mrs. Bakas was a dinner guest of Mrs. James Russell Monday.

Dr. Joe Bennett, of Eloise, was a Sheldon caller Monday. He announced the arrival of a little one at the home of his son, Harold, last week, which makes him a very proud grandpa, being the only grandchild.

Mrs. James Gotts attended the D. of H. lodge at Inkster with Lizzie Leonard Tuesday.

Lee Decker and wife, of Detroit, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker.

The Pedro club will be entertained at Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Decker's home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Langworthy, of Wayne, called on her sister, Mrs. Wm. Avery, and family Sunday.

Mr. Melvin Palmer, who went to the hospital last week for an operation, when the doctors examined him said it was no use, as he has a cancer between the roots of his tongue and tonsil, a very serious place.

The Epworth league cleared about $15 at their social last week Friday evening.

Frank Truesdell will have an auction sale Feb. 14. He will go out of the dairy business and go into the garden truck business.

Mary Wagonback and Chester Raymond spent Sunday afternoon with her mother, Mrs. John Stobie, and family.

League meeting next Wednesday evening.

Arvilla Besore broke her right wrist Monday while skating on roller skates.

Mayor T. E. Schaible presiding. Present—Ald. Smith, Downing, Horner, Moorman, Holmes, Lathers, Deyo, Worden, Max—v. Absent—Ald. Sutherland—1.

There being no corrections to the minutes of the last regular meeting, Jan. 16, 1922, they stand approved as printed.

Reports of Officers.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Feb. 6, 1922. To the Common Council:

I have collected to date approximately $181,000. of the December, 1921, tax assessment, and have paid of this amount to the school district No. 4 $65,500, and to the county treasurer $20,000.

The balance of roll uncollected is $22,000.

Respectfully submitted.

ETHYL B. VAN ETTEN, City Treasurer.

By Ald. Max—

Resolved: That the report of the City Treasurer be accepted and filed and that the December tax rolls remain permanently in the hands of the City Treasurer until such time as they are placed in the custody of the County Treasurer.

Carried.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Feb. 1, 1922. To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council, City of Ypsilanti:

I herewith submit my report

TRUMPETER BROOKS SOON TO RETURN HOME

The Record is in receipt of the following letter from Harold Brooks, who is in Cuba with the Second Provisional battalion of the U. S. Marines:

Feb. 1, 1922.

To the Editor:

The immediate return of Trumpeter Harold Brooks of the Second Provisional battalion of U. S. Marines has been postponed on account of the removal of the marine camp from Camaguey, Cuba, where Mr. Brooks has been stationed for the past 16 months. President Alfreds Y. Zayas of the Republic of Cuba has seen fit to ask for the withdrawal of the marines from that city.

The marines have been in Camaguey since 1917, when President Gomez requested of President Wilson that a detachment of marines be sent to Camaguey to protect American property in eastern Cuba.

The second battalion will leave Camaguey on Feb. 4 for Bay de Guantanamo, from which place they will probably return to the United States with the Atlantic fleet in April or May.

I send my best wishes to all my Ypsilanti friends and hope that I will soon be in their midst.

Believe me to be yours respectfully,

HAROLD BROOKS, Trumpeter U. S. M. C.

Camaguey Detch, U. S. Naval Station, Bay de Guantanamo, Cuba.

THE TRAIL BLAZERS HOLD SIXTH MEETING

On Saturday morning the Trail Blazers held their sixth meeting in the schoolhouse of district No. 2, Superior. The first number on the program was a talk on teaching penmanship by Miss Marion Wilkins, one of the helping teachers. This was followed by a class demonstration in penmanship by Florence Willits, of Dixboro. Miss Willits is teaching her first school, but in the presence of 40 or 50 people she gave the impression that she was a teacher of much experience.

Mrs. Saida Dixon, of the Free Church school, taught a class in blackboard writing. The following children took part: Earl McKim, Charles Trowbridge, Carlton Engstrom, Merle McKim, Howard Mosher and Howard Shock.

The next number on the program was a talk on teaching oral reading by Miss Sevensen. This was followed by a class demonstration. The morning program was followed by a sumptuous dinner served by the ladies of the Free Church district.

The afternoon program was of the nature of a community meeting. Mrs. Freida Harrow, president of the Tail Blazers club, called on Dr. Pittman and Commissioner Evan Essery. An interesting part of the afternoon program was a discussion of the necessity of testing cows for tuberculosis. Mr. Glen Bird, of district No. 6, Superior, gave an interesting talk on that subject and it was discussed also by Earl Quackenbush, Herman Haas and Earl Martin.

Mr. Whitney, one of the helping teachers, made a plea for boys' and girls' club work. This was also advocated by many of the people present. The following teachers were in attendance: Dr. M. B. Pittman, Commissioner Evan Essery, E. F. McDaid, Clarence Whitney, Greta Pardon, Hildred Gross, Edna Freeman, Lydia Ostell, Amy Person, Ruth Sevensen, Marion Wilkins, Frances Treadgold, Mrs. Saida Dixon, Mrs. Freida Harrow, Mrs. Raymond Blaess, Guy Ableson, Grace Hodge, Carrie Crippen, Florence Willits, Sara Rice and Alma Bolgos. Members of the community present: Clara Priebe, Iola McKim, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosher, LeRoy and Aletha Spague, Mrs. Russell Trowbridge, Mrs. Arthur McFarlane, Miss Vera McFarlane, Mrs. Ed Conklin, Mrs. Olin Strang, Alice Strang, Gladys Strang, Mrs. Hattie Strang, Mrs. Gottlieb Sweitzer, Carrie Sweitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan, Loreta Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ruloff Padgett, Mr. and Mrs. McKim, Mr. Sam Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Quackenbush, Mrs. Floyd Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bird, Mr. Herman Haas, Mrs. Herman Staebler, Mrs. Edward Zeeb, Earl Martin.
